1. Preamble

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Orient Cement Ltd (the "Company"), has adopted the following policy and procedures with regard to Related Party Transactions as defined below. The Audit Committee will review and may amend this policy from time to time.

This policy is to regulate transactions between the Company and its Related Parties based on the laws and regulations applicable on the Company.

2. Purpose

This policy is framed as per the requirements of Regulation 23 of Securities Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 [including any modification(s) / amendment(s) / re-enactment(s) thereof] ("SEBI LODR") and in terms of Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 and is intended to ensure proper approval, disclosure and reporting requirements of transactions between the Company and its Related Parties.

3. Definitions

"Act" shall mean the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules framed thereunder, including any modifications, clarifications, circulars or re-enactment thereof.

"Arm's length transaction" means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest. For determination of Arm's Length basis, guidance may be taken from provisions of Transfer Pricing under Income Tax Act, 1961.

"Audit Committee or Committee" means "Audit Committee" constituted by the Board of Directors of the Company under provisions of SEBI LODR and Companies Act, 2013 as amended from time to time.

"Associate Company" means any other Company, in which the Company has a significant influence, but which is not a Subsidiary Company of the Company having such influence and includes a joint venture company.

Explanation – For the purpose of this clause

"significant influence" means control of at least twenty per cent of total share capital, or business decisions under an agreement.

"Board of Directors" or "Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company, as constituted from time to time.

"Control" shall have the same meaning as defined in SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011.

"Material Related Party Transaction" shall mean:-

- (i) Any Transaction with a Related Party shall be considered as material, if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds Rs 1000 crore or 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, whichever is lower.
- (ii) Any transaction involving payment to a Related Party with respect to brand usage or royalty entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, materiality threshold shall be 5% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.
- (iii) Transactions with a Related Party covered under Rule 15(3) of the Companies (Meeting of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 exceeding the limits provided under the Companies Act, 2013.

All Material Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications as defined by the audit committee shall be placed for prior approval of the shareholders through resolution and no related party shall vote on such resolution, whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

"Material modification"

Material Modification shall mean:-

- (i) any change in the transaction value exceeding 20% of the already approved transaction value.
- (ii) Any modification in significant terms and conditions of the contract with a related party such as price, alteration to the credit period, changes in scope of deliverables under a contract etc.
- (iii) Any other modifications, which as per the directions of Audit Committee may deemed to be material on case to case basis.

All subsequent material modification in related party transactions shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee and shareholders.

"Policy" means Related Party Transaction Policy.

"Related Party" means related party as defined under Regulation 2(1) (zb) of SEBI LODR, Section 2(76) of the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules framed thereunder or under the applicable accounting standards:

Provided that :

- a) any person or entity forming a part of the promoter or promoter group (including entities over which the promoter or promoter group may have control or significant influence) irrespective of their shareholding or
- b) any person/entity holding equity shares in the listed entity, either directly or on a beneficial interest basis at any time during the immediately preceding financial year of 10% or more.

"Related Party Transaction or transaction ("RPT)" means transaction in the nature of contract involving transfer of resources, services or obligations between the Company or its subsidiaries on one side and the Related Party on the other side, regardless of whether a price is charged.

Explanation – A "transaction" with a Related Party shall be construed to include single or a group of transactions in a contract.

The RPT shall include transactions between –

- a. the Company or any of its subsidiaries on one hand and a related party of the Company or any of its subsidiaries on the other hand;
- b. the Company or any of its subsidiaries on one hand, and any other person or entity on the other hand, the purpose and effect of which is to benefit a related party of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

"Material Modification" in terms of SEBI LODR means any modification(s) in the pricing, quantity or overall transaction value having a variance of 20% (twenty percent) or more, in the relevant previously approved material related party transaction

4. Policy and Procedure

- Policy

All Related Party Transactions must be reported to the Audit Committee and referred for approval by the Committee in accordance with this policy.

- Procedures

A. Identification of Related Party Transactions

Every director, key managerial personnel and promoters shall at the beginning of the financial year provide information by way of written notice to the company regarding their concern or interest in the entity with specific concern to parties which may be considered as related party with respect to the Company and shall also provide the list of relatives which are regarded as related party as per this policy. Directors are also required to provide information regarding their engagement with other entity during the financial year which may be regarded as related party according to this policy. Every director, key managerial personnel and promoters shall also be required to immediately intimate (within not more than 7 days) to the Company Secretary, any change (addition or deletion) to previously provided disclosure of concern or interest in any entity or list of relatives. Company Secretary shall be responsible for maintaining updated list of Related Party.
